

Admission procedures

- Individuals interested in the radiography program must complete an application; provide an official college/s transcript/s.
- The applicant will be contacted in writing concerning the status of the application (complete or incomplete).
- Upon completion of the admission interview, the Admission Committee will review and score all applications.
- The Radiologic Technology Program Admissions Committee consists of the following members:
 - Radiology Administrative Director
 - Program Director
 - Designated Faculty
 - Designated Clinical Instructors
- The Radiography Program Admission Committee reviews candidate's application with particular attention to:
 - Strength of college grades and GPA 2.8.
 - Community service, work experience and extracurricular activities.
- The applicant is notified in writing, between March 1st and March 31st, concerning the decision of the Admission Committee.
- Upon acceptance into the program:
 - The student must pay $700.00 acceptance deposit that will be applied towards tuition. This may be paid in two deposits - $350.00 upon acceptance then, $350.00 thirty days later.
 - The student must provide proof of health insurance, which will be monitored bi-annually.
 - The student will be required to have a physical performed at St. Christopher's Hospital.
 - The student must provide documentation of up to date immunizations, recent PPD, and Hepatitis-B Vaccine.
- The Program begins in August of each year.